

CONGRESS HAS ENDED ITS WORK

Closing Scene in Both Senate and House Never Equaled.

SPOONER CONTROLS

Badger Senator Fires Last Gun for the Administration in a Hot Debate.

STRIKING SCENES

Washington, D. C., July 2.—(Special)—Amid scenes of rejoicing not equalled since the closing incidents of the Spanish war, the House of Representatives Fifty-Seventh Congress, closed its session adjourned sine die, Tuesday afternoon. "My Country 'Tis of Thee" was sung in unison and Speaker Henderson and General Hooker, of Mississippi, the one armed confederate veteran, led the ever swelling chorus of "Dixie."

Such a scene of real fellowship has never been exhibited in the closing session of any congress in the past. Two thirds of the representatives were in their seats when Speaker Henderson made his closing remarks and as he walked from the rostrum onto the floor of the house, he was greeted by the congressmen with the song "For He is a Jolly Good Fellow." When "Dixie" was sung, led by Henderson and Hooker, Mr. Chandler, of Mississippi jumped to the top of his desk and gave a vivid exhibition of the famous "rebel" slogan, that shook the rafters.

In the Senate, President Roosevelt held his farewell reception to the Senators. He stood in the center of the floor, debonair and handsome, and smiled and showed his teeth whenever he was flayed rhetorically by the Senators.

Senator Spooner closed his year's work with the Fifty-Seventh Congress in a blaze of glory. His last act was that of defending the president from censure by democratic senators, and ably defending the policy of the administration. He spoke for all the principles of true republicanism. His attack upon the defamers of the administration was bitter in the extreme and his scathing and bitter denunciation of the attack on the administration culminated in the following statement:

"This secret, hidden, mysterious, poisonous spring should be laid bare. If the army was to be attacked from ambush, the veil should be torn away."

President's Reception. Probably there is no country in the world that could present such a scene as was enacted in the President's room at five o'clock.

This gorgeous room, one of the show places of the big capitol, is just off the senate chamber. Here the chief executive of the United States sat and signed bills galore, joked with the Senators, members of the house and renewed acquaintances with former friends. Clear smoke pervaded the air and in one corner a huge bowl of lemonade furnished liquid refreshment for the visitors. It was truly a typical American scene, a scene of a true republic.

Spooner in Evidence. While the Senators were talking over the coming summer, while the President was signing bills, and pages were running hither and yon with big relief papers, a small, tousled man came into the room. Everybody made way for him. Every one wanted to shake hands with him.

Roosevelt looked up, he reached out his hand and grasped the Wisconsin Senator by the hand, and whispered something in his ear that set all the smiles in the doughty Badger, at work. Spooner is the favorite, the right hand man of the administration.

Beveridge Incident. Senators Bailey and Beveridge were both present. Bailey solemn and quiet, glad if some one would talk to him and Beveridge smiling and pleasant. The two did not speak.

SHIBLEY'S UNIQUE POLITICAL IDEA

HE IS A LOYAL STALWART

Places Posters on His Home to Proclaim His Allegiance to Senator Whitehead.

C. Shibley, of Indian Ford, is hardly the same breed of Republican as the candidate for re-election to a county office who boasted confidentially to a friend that he was managing his own campaign with a great deal of shrewdness by staying in the middle of the road so that he could jump either way. Incidentally he was assured by the friend that he would stay long enough to get run over but that is another story, though a good one.

As before stated Mr. Shibley is not that kind of a Republican. His political life has been one of unwavering loyalty first to the Whigs and then to the Republican party. In the present factional contest, there has been no lingering in the middle of the road for him. He knew from the very first on which side of the road he belonged and he has not been backward about proclaiming his attitude publicly.

Is a Stalwart. Mr. Shibley is a Stalwart and a Whitehead enthusiast and he wants everyone to know it. He intends to leave in the near future for a visit in Minnesota and because he will not be in the county to assert his political faith himself he has had two large posters printed and these will be placed on his home in conspicuous positions. The posters bear the words "Stalwart—Roosevelt and Whitehead" in letters so large that he who runs may read.

HARMONY HAS A MAD DOG SCARE

FARM ANIMALS ARE BITTEN

Little Ward Boy Bitten by a Pig That Was a Victim of the Dog.

People residing in the town of Harmony, near Mt. Zion, are very much excited with the fear of an epidemic of rabies among the dogs, horses and swine of that section.

Several days ago a dog belonging to P. J. Ward, who resides on the Milwaukee road about five miles north-east of the city, developed signs of rabies and bit a cow and pig belonging to that gentleman. Then the dog ran down the road and is thought to have bitten several dogs and other farm animals and has not been seen since.

Develops Rabies. The cow and the pig developed symptoms of the rabies and yesterday Dr. E. D. Roberts was called out and examined them and found both afflicted. He at once took steps to have them appraised and killed.

Boy Bitten. A four year old boy of Mr. Ward's was bitten by the pig on one finger and an arm, after the pig had been bitten by the dog and it is feared that the boy may go mad. The little fellow was brought to Dr. Woods today and everything done to prevent a case of rabies.

ONEIDA CLAIM IS RE-OPENED

Interior Department To Investigate Request for $300,000.

Madison, Wis., July 2.—C. E. Buell, assistant attorney general, today returned from Washington, where he appeared before the Interior Department for the Oneida Indians of Wisconsin, who want $300,000 of the $2,000,000 awarded the Oneidas for certain New York lands ceded to the Federal government many years ago. The Interior Department once decided that the Oneidas of Wisconsin were not entitled to share in the award, because they had received government land in this state in lieu of their equity in other lands.

Upon petition of the Wisconsin Indians the case was re-opened and they were given another hearing. There are about 2,000 Oneidas in Wisconsin who are entitled to share in the $300,000, should the government sustain their claim. Mr. Buell feels quite confident that the claim of the Wisconsin Indians will be sustained this time.

While in the East Mr. Buell also saw the big intercollegiate races at Poughkeepsie. He says that the Badgers, who got second in both the fresh man and varsity races, made a splendid showing and every Wisconsin man who saw the contest was highly gratified. Mr. Buell is an alumnus of the university.

DOES NOT THINK ATTACK IS JUST

CHIEF HOGAN STATES FACTS

Says the St. Paul Company Exaggerates Its Losses and Depreciates Police Work.

Chief of Police Hogan is highly indignant at the statements made by the St. Paul officials in regard to the amount of police protection they are getting in Janesville and the number of robberies occurring here. He says that it is a very curious thing that if they are having trains robbed in this city almost every day that no report of the matter has been made to him. That during the present spring and summer the St. Paul officials have reported but two robberies to him. One was the theft of some shoes from a case of shoes belonging to F. M. Marzuff & Co. that had been left in the old freight depot on Academy street, for almost nine months with little, if any protection from thieves, as the building is open the most of the time. These shoes were taken about six weeks ago as nearly as can be ascertained and the chief of police was not notified of the fact by the agent until ten days after the shoes had been taken.

Car Episode
As for the car, which the officials of the road claim was broken into and some flour taken, he does not yet know whether or not there was anything taken. The St. Paul agent in this city reported to him that the car had been opened and two bags of flour and a ham taken. The agent was not dead certain that the flour had been taken and said that he would check up on the car and would let him (Hogan) know but has made to report since that time.

This is the extent of the St. Paul car robberies in this city that have been reported to the chief of police this spring.

Loss is Small
The chief further states that their actual loss in this city during the last twenty years from car robberies does not exceed $100, or $5 a year. That there has never been a time that he has not aided their detectives in every way possible and when there has been an arrest made in this city he made it and not the St. Paul detectives.

Records Talk
Mr. Hogan also states that he has the records to prove the statement, that after he has arrested people here, for stealing from the St. Paul company that their officials had let the men go for a money consideration instead of bringing them before the courts as they should have done.

Employees Mixed Up
It has been clearly shown that in at least one case this spring where young men were arrested for depredations around the yards, that the railroad employees were mixed up in the trouble with them.

Not A Just Demand
Chief Hogan says that he does not believe that the citizens of Janesville are willing to be taxed for the support of a day and night officer to look after the St. Paul yards a mile from town. If they are he is willing to ask that they be added to the force. There is not a night goes by but that an officer visits the St. Paul passenger station and cleans out the loafers and toughs and it has often been the case that an officer has gone up there on winter nights at one and two o'clock and driven out a crowd of loafers.

Ready To Prove Statements
Mr. Hogan stands ready to back up all these statements and has the documents to prove all his assertions. He says that if the St. Paul officials will glance over the court records for the last twenty years they will see who has made the arrests and who secured the conviction of the people who robbed their cars, not St. Paul detectives, but the Janesville police.

Weather Bureau, Wisconsin Section, for the week ending July 2.

General Remarks: The continued cool, wet weather has been unfavorable for corn and interfered materially with the harvesting of clover. Some farmers made an attempt at haying but very little was secured in good condition. Wheat in some localities is ready for harvesting but the ground is very soft. Warm weather is needed for corn and for the ripening of grain.

Temperature: The average temperature for the week was slightly below that of the preceding week, the entire week being exceptionally cool and seriously retarded the advancement of corn and the ripening of small grains. Killing frosts occurred in some of the northern counties during the early part of the week and in a few exposed localities the damage was considerable. Light frosts were reported from some sections in the central counties, but no material damage occurred.

Precipitation: The rains were frequent and generally heavy in the northern section and seriously retarded the cultivation of corn. On the 26th a heavy rain storm passed over the central and southern portions of the state, accompanied by high winds which caused the grain to lodge badly. The ground is generally wet and very soft.

Corn: The cool weather during the week was detrimental to corn, which is becoming yellow, especially on low land. Considerable cultivating was done during the early part of the week in the central and southern counties, especially on the high ground. Corn on low land is generally very weedy and the stand poor. The condition of this crop has declined considerably during the week.

Winter Wheat and Rye: Rye is ripening rapidly and wheat is turning yellow. The heads are remarkably well developed and straw heavy. The high winds of the 26th caused considerable lodging, but no great damage was done and the outlook for heavy crops is exceptionally good.

Oats and Barley are maturing rapidly, the growth of straw is remarkably heavy, except in the northern section where the continued rains retarded the growth. Lodging is frequent, but with warm weather little or no damage will result.

Meadows and Pastures: Considerable clover was cut during the week but the weather has not been favorable for curing and some loss resulted. Hay is generally reported as a heavy crop in all sections of the state. Pastures are in excellent condition.

Potatoes The early varieties are generally in bloom. Late plantings have attained a good stand and the plants appear to be thrifty. Some damage occurred in the northern and central counties by the frosts during the early part of the week.

Tabacco: Planting is nearly completed. The plants are of a good stand and appear strong and thrifty. Warm weather is needed for rapid growth.

Fruit: Apple trees are badly blighted and the outlook is not encouraging. Strawberries were only a fair crop. Cherries, currants and blackberries are light crops and rather inferior in quality.

Southern Section
Randolph, Dodge County: Hay and small grain looking well, but lodging some; too cold for corn; good crop of fruit expected.—George R. Davis.

Afton, Rock County: Corn growing well but backward; oats and rye look fine; rye nearly ready to cut; some hay cut, quality good; potatoes look well.—U. G. Walte.

Blue Mounds, Dane county: Corn improved by cultivation; small grain heavy and considerably lodged; potatoes in excellent condition; some hay cut.—Chas. I. Brigham.

Pardeeville, Columbia county: All small grain and grass doing well; too cold for corn; small acreage of clover but a good crop is being harvested.—M. V. Roberts.

Slavery Under Protest.

Just before Miss Alice Fidella Tower of Buffalo was pronounced the wife of poor John Henry Waggoner she read to the bridal guests a typewritten treatise protesting against the slavery of women. How inconsistent women are!

Too Much Virtue.

If the average man were as good as he thinks other men ought to be it wouldn't be long until his vanity made him topheavy.—New York Press.

SPRING BROOK A SCENE OF ACTION

MANY IMPROVEMENTS MADE

Pearl Button Factory Opens, Vegetables Are Planted and Railroad Erects a Signal Tower.

Opening of the pearl button factory, improvements on the tracks of both railroads, planting on the land of the canning factory, together with some accidents at the Choate-Hollister works have made Spring Brook a locality of considerable interest of late.

Monday the machinery of the pearl button factory was completely installed in the new building on McKee boulevard near the electric car barn. Delay in beginning work was caused by a shortage of shells from which to cut the buttons. Tuesday the car arrived and today operations are going on merrily.

Minnesota Shells
The load was shipped from Red Wing, Minnesota, and is an extra fine lot of fresh water shells. The factory is not at present carrying as large a lot of hands as it is expected will be taken on later.

Car Barns Finished
The street car barn is now completed and is in shape both for housing the cars and for doing repair work. One of the cars whose trucks were recently dismantled is laid up for a complete overhauling and repairing.

New Signal Tower
Stone masonry and window casings have been hauled for the erection of a signal tower at the junction of the C. M. & St. P. R. track with McKee boulevard. Monday workmen commenced digging for the foundation and the building will be pushed through rapidly. The plan will probably eventually provide for the erection of gates at the crossings. At any rate a flagman will be on duty to clear the way for all passing trains. The object is to provide a complete interlocking system on this part of the line which will enable the trains to go through at a higher rate of speed. In addition to allowing the train to make better time the system will add greatly to the safety of travellers on the line and of passers-by on the boulevard. Another point of great importance is that it will be necessary for the trains to slow up before the grade which meets west bound trains on this stretch of track. The incline is one of the worst in this part of the country and it is a difficult thing for a heavy freight train to escape being stalled. It is said also, that a saving of thousands of dollars in coal would be effected annually if it were unnecessary to slacken speed before this grade.

Accidents
Will Munshaw, a workman in the Choate-Hollister furniture factory had a thumb taken off by the saw at which he was working. His home is on the Beloit road.

Saturday afternoon John Mueller whose home is on South Franklin street had his foot bruised while in the same works and is now laid up for a few days. At the time of the accident Mr. Mueller at first did not even mention the matter to those about him but went off into a room by himself where he attempted to ease the pain of the injured member. Finally he called one of the men from the office and said: "he guessed he that he would stay out a short time. At that he was about to put on his shoe and walk but he was finally induced to ride to his home."

At The Cannery
The canning factory will probably open about the twentieth of this month. Mr. Hohenadel went to Hanover on Monday to oversee the work of his growers in that place. This weather is not putting him in a very pleasant frame of mind. It is too wet for cucumbers and not warm enough for corn. Each crop is being replanted as soon as the first planting proves unsuccessful. On the ground to the east of the factory cucumbers were being planted, Monday. On the Hughes farm, which is contracted by the company, cabbage planting has just been completed, under the supervision of Fred Barhart.

Must Depend On Shipments
As matters look now it seems probable the factory will be obliged to depend largely on shipments from out of town. It is hoped the present planting will not be hindered by rain and cold as have the last. The cabbage crop seems to be the most successful this year. There seems to be no fear of not being able to secure a sufficient quantity of vegetables from some source even if the local planters fail and the factory will work night and day unless some such catastrophe as the runaway engine of last season should demoralize the industry.

Cement Post Works
More men have been put on the grading and brick laying crews. At the cement post works and there has been no further delay caused by the inability to secure supplies. The wall in the main part of the structure is practically completed and the framework of the roof is nearly in place. The walls of the drying shed are going more slowly. The grading in the shed has begun but has not advanced far. Better roads have made it easier to transfer materials from the cars on the canning factory siding to the scene of work than it was for several weeks past.

The Spur Track
The C. M. & St. P. R. spur track to the post factory is occupying a good sized construction gang at present. The bridge was completed several days ago and the rails are now being laid.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

DEPUTIES SHOOT MINER TO DEATH

Guards Said to Have Been Hasty and Indiscreet in Their Action.

MAY RESORT TO ARBITRATION

Report that Operators Will Offer to Adjust Matters in Dispute if the Men Will Return to Work Pending the Settlement.

Pittston, Pa., July 2.—Vincenzo Luigi, a miner, was shot to death by one of the deputies of the William A. Colliery of the Lehigh Valley coal company at Connelton, two miles north of here. Indications point to hasty and indiscreet action by the deputies as being responsible for the murder of Luigi and the narrow escape of his companion.

Luigi and Betteto Giuseppe, according to the latter, were returning home from Scranton and were about to turn down a street near the mine stockade when two shots were heard. The rim of Giuseppe's hat was torn away, and as he saw his companion fall he fled in terror.

Shot from Behind.

All night Luigi's body lay in the field. The bullet which killed him entered the brain from behind the ear and the shot seemed to have been fired from an altitude of several feet.

The latter fact tends to confirm the story of one of the mine officials, which was to the effect that, when the two Italians were ordered to stop as they neared the stockade, they refused to comply and fired several shots from a pistol. At this one of the deputies jumped on the high fence and shot at the men. The bullet which killed Luigi was of the caliber used in the rifles carried by the deputies.

TURN BACK WORKERS.

Pickets at Hazleton Force Nonunion Men to Retire.

Hazleton, Pa., July 2.—The strikers here were led to believe that attempts were to be made at several collieries to start work, and they gathered at every mine. At each colliery a committee of two or three scores was gathered to turn back all the workers. They remained at a sufficient distance from the collieries to prevent the guard aiding workers in getting through the lines and stopped all who appeared. Other men held up the street cars and took all nonunion workers off. Some of the men were roughly handled, and General Foreman Caleb Williams of the Lehigh Valley Coal company was stoned while attempting to escort a nonunion man.

SAY STRIKE NEARS END.

Proposition for Arbitration if Men Return to Work.

Pottsville, Pa., July 2.—It is stated here that the end of the coal miners' strike is near at hand. If the questions at issue are submitted to arbitration it is not believed a decision can be secured before September. Local strike leaders are jubilant over the prospect of a settlement.

mend the Governor's Administration.

ROOSEVELT FOR PRESIDENT

Warm Indorsement of the Chief Executive, Who Is Recommended for Re-election—Equalization of Taxes Held to Be Necessary.

Governor—Samuel R. Van Sant.
Lieutenant Governor—H. W. Jones.
Secretary of State—Peter E. Hanson.
State Auditor—Samuel G. Iverson.
State Treasurer—J. H. Block.
Attorney General—W. H. Douglas.
Clerk of Supreme Court—C. A. Pridson.
Railroad Commissioner—C. F. Staples.

St. Paul, Minn., July 2.—The Minnesota Republicans in convention nominated a full state ticket. Most of the nominating was by acclamation, for auditor and clerk of the Supreme court only one ballot was needed.

After a brief but lively debate the platform as reported by the committee was adopted.

The platform reaffirms the party adherence to the Republican platform of 1900, and after expressing sorrow for the death of President McKinley indorses the administration of President Roosevelt and recommends him for re-election to the presidency. The death of Cushman K. Davis is lamented and he is described as a brave soldier and a pure, wise and trusted statesman.

The people of Minnesota are congratulated upon the patriotic and business like administration of Gov. Van Sant and other officials of the state, particularly regarding the state institutions.

Indorses Van Sant.

The action of Gov. Van Sant in his efforts to enforce the laws of this state against the consolidation of competing lines of railway is heartily commended.

The resolutions continue: "We are in favor of such legislation as will equalize as far as possible the burdens of taxation and require all persons, corporations, and property to bear their just proportion of such taxation."

"We indorse the course of the administration of peace and order and of civil government in the Philippine Islands. We favor the policy of encouraging the participation of the inhabitants of the Philippine Islands in their domestic government to the largest extent practicable whenever peace and order are restored."

"We condemn those who continue to resist the authority of the United States, either openly in the Philippines or secretly at home, and we condemn strongly the malignant attacks upon our navy and army."

Favors Tariff Modification.

"We favor such modification in our tariff schedules as is now or may from time to time be required by changing conditions to remove any burdens from our people and to hold and extend our trade among the nations."

"We congratulate the new republic of Cuba upon its entrance among the nations of the earth. We wish for it peace, prosperity and a long and successful national career and we favor reciprocity with Cuba as urged by President Roosevelt."

"We favor the election of senators by the people and we strongly indorse our present senators, Knute Nelson and Moses E. Clapp."

"The Republican party of Minnesota indorses its representatives from this state in congress."

The attendance at the Oshkosh normal school's summer session will be larger than ever before.

WEATHER FORECAST

Unsettled with showers, probably local thunderstorms tonight and Thursday.

THE SITUATION.

The political situation, two weeks in advance of the convention, gives no occasion for despondency on the part of the stalwarts, or for exultation to the administration.

The contest is still being waged with the same degree of enthusiasm on both sides. Caucuses already held indicate that the strength is about evenly divided, with advantage in favor of the stalwarts.

Whatever success has been attained by the governor's forces, is due to democratic support and the convention that has the deciding vote, is a Republican convention. There will be no hasty action taken, or no snap judgments permitted.

The welfare of the party, which is more vital than the success of any candidate, will be considered. The convention will be asked to endorse the candidacy of John C. Spooner. If it fails to comply, the professions of loyalty to him will be doubted and clearer vision will result.

The Gazette has maintained from the first that the party possessed too much good sense to renominate Governor LaFollette. The paper is of the same opinion still. The party is not courting political suicide and it will not take the chances of a second term with a governor that has proved himself a disturber and in every way unfit for the office.

KANSAS LIBERATED.

The Populist party in Kansas, which at one time numbered about 100,000, is a thing of the past. The party has disbanded and nearly half of its members have returned to the republican fold. The balance have scattered, some going to the democratic party, and quite a contingency are in the middle of the road, where they are liable to be run over.

It is fortunate for the state that Republicanism has won. From present indications, it will be a cold day when any sort of fadism again gains control of the state.

Kansas enjoys an intelligent population, but with this intelligence are peculiarities so pronounced that the personnel of the state has always been destructive.

It has long been a haven for prohibitionists, and they have been attracted to its borders from the east and middle-west, in large numbers.

As a result, fanaticism has developed and St. John's and Carrie Nations in more or less violent form, have been encouraged to assume leadership, and the state has long been a political by word.

The average farmer in Kansas is a man of literary tastes, and his wife is always his equal in this respect. The family knows more about books and music than they do about farming, and so when the grasshopper came along to annoy them and the drought and hot winds burned up the crops, they very naturally thought that the world was conspiring against them and so the grange was organized, prohibition flourished, and full fledged populism and unrest was the natural result.

When the democrats were turned out in 1896 and McKinley and prosperity were ushered in, conditions changed, and "bleeding Kansas" shared in improved surroundings. Nature also smiled upon the state and the farmers had less time for fads, and more time for work. One good crop wiped out the mortgages, and the next one cleaned up populism and transformed the people from a restless discontented race to happy and contented citizenship.

There is no excuse for populism in Kansas today, any more than there is in Wisconsin and the state has occasion to rejoice in being free from the curse.

THE OLEOMARGARINE LAW

In anticipation of the Oleo law, which went into effect July 1st, the price of butter has been steadily maintained and the June product has practically brought winter prices. This, in spite of the fact that feed in all parts of the country was never more abundant.

The Gazette has maintained that the Oleo bill smacked of class legislation as thoroughly as did the ship subsidy bill. The former was for the benefit of the dairymen in the West, the latter for the ship builders of the East. Ship subsidy means squandering the people's money from the public crib and the Oleo bill levies a tax on the masses by depriving them of a wholesome food product and compelling them to use a luxury.

The pure food argument and the cry of fraud, so popular among the dairy interests, is a farce and delusion and why an intelligent congress was influenced by it, is a question not yet explained. Pure Oleomargarine is just as wholesome as the choicest dairy or creamery butter and when sold on its merits, there is no more fraud connected with it than there is in selling butter.

It is fortunate for the country that the manufacturers of Oleo have already discovered a way to beat this unjust law and they are not slow in taking advantage of it. The law discriminates against the colored product and levies a tax of 10 cents per pound, providing all sorts of penalties for violation. The uncolored may be sold and used however by paying a tax of one-fourth of a cent per pound.

In its natural state it resembles lard and is about as inviting as uncolored butter. The manufacturers are now sending it out, with a coloring wafer enclosed in each package, and full instructions as to its use. The ingredient is as harmless as the color used by dairymen, and it is but little trouble to prepare it for the table. As soon as it becomes well advertised, it will be popular and people who have been accustomed to Oleo and who do not feel able to buy butter, will not long be deprived of a good substitute. Both are products of the farm and there is no occasion for complaint on the part of the farmer. The new coloring process will require a little work for poor people, but it will furnish them a palatable substitute for luxury.

Brother Wilder in his mistaken and blind following of the "Will" of the Wisp light of the Official State paper, still insists that LaFollette's election does not mean Spooner's defeat. In an editorial comment he says of the situation from his standpoint:

"It is most true that many a good republican is today standing for LaFollette, who would never lift a finger in his behalf were he made to realize that it would mean an act against Senator Spooner—Green Bay Gazette."

"Yes, if Governor LaFollette should take advantage of the re-election which will be given him by the aid of thousands of men, like Col. Hicks, and others, to deprive Wisconsin of Senator Spooner's services, it would be an act of bad faith and send him into history with a stigma attached to his name. We have fought the LaFollette fight in the belief and with the assurance of men who must be presumed to speak for him in such matters that the victory for the state administration is without reference to Senator Spooner on whose continuance in public life we lay as much, if not more stress, than on a continuance of authority to Governor LaFollette, expecting both to accomplish certain ends."

The narrow escape of the carload of people at the Northwestern crossing on Sunday afternoon, demonstrates clearly that some one was at fault. Either the cars should have conductors who can run ahead and see if the tracks are clear, or the railroad companies should have a gate-man who will be on duty when he is needed to avert the possibility of such narrow escapes.

St. Paul railroad officials are of the opinion that Janesville has not enough police and advises that it secure some more. Evidently they have not run up against Chief Hogan when he really meant business. For a small town, with a few police, Chief Hogan has better control over the rough element than Chief O'Neill of Chicago has with his endless number of coppers.

Bryan is going to write novels. He has tried being congressman, soldier, lecturer, editor and reporter, and now he must turn literary. Old Johnson, Swift or Addison would turn in their graves if they thought his name would ever be placed in the same column as theirs. Poor Bryan.

When Albert Edward, King of England, Ireland and Scotland, ruler of the Australias and South Africa and Emperor of India, gets better and is able to understand what he missed by not hearing Foot Laureate Austin's poem on his coronation read, he will appreciate what a blessing his illness really was.

Is it not strange to note how the morning after the caucuses in any county, the LaFollette papers come out and claim everything and then when the truth is known, the delegations are found to have some way gotten into the Stalwart column? Why is it?

What will Whiteclaw Reid do with those knee pants he bought for "Ed-dies'" tea party. He may be able to utilize them for bicycle panties, if he has a bicycle.

Cuba's Impending Ruin.

The Diario de la Marina of Havana demonstrates in figures the ruin with which Cuba's chief industry is now threatened. The figures are taken from the books of a leading planter. They set forth, therefore, an actual and recent transaction.

This planter had 10,000 bags, or 3,200,000 pounds of sugar of such high grade that he was able to get for it 10 cents a bag above the current New York price. Yet, having no other market he was obliged to sell his crop at a net loss of over 68 cents a bag. His expenditures and receipts were as follows:

Actual cost of production and transportation to Havana, per bag, $4.3123; freight, insurance, brokerage, etc., Havana to New York, per bag, .68; duty, per bag, $.392; total cost delivered to refinery, per bag, $5.3843; received from refinery, per bag, $.970; net loss to planter, per bag, .6843 cents.

In other words, for sugar that cost him $103.343 to produce and get to market, the planter received but $97.000. With no allowance whatever for local taxes, interest on capital, and depreciation of plant, his net loss on his year's work was $5.843. No business man needs to be told that to attempt to do business under such conditions is simple ruin.

It is to be noted that $53,920 of the planter's total expenditure of $103,443 was for taxes paid to the United States. In other words, more than half of every $100 produced by capital and labor on Cuba sugar plantations goes to the United States treasury, which does not need the money.

"Some may call this," observes the Diario de la Marina, "liberty, independence, and sovereignty, but others call it the harshest kind of economic dependence."

The fact is that we are treating Cuba as harshly, from the commercial viewpoint, as did Spain. While giving Cuba political freedom, we have condemned her to an economic slavery which makes that freedom worthless.

Such is our record in Cuba to date. Such is the record written by Republican Senators and Congressmen who hearkened to the voice of Oxnard rather than to the voice of the American people.

The Republican members of Congress who think they can defend and justify that record before the American people at the polls have an unenviable task—a task of which the Republicans who stand with William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt would gladly wash their hands.—Inter Ocean.

PRESS COMMENT

Those who have been concerned about the muddle in republican politics in other part of Wisconsin, are having their hands and hearts full right here at home. The county of Fond du Lac has forty Republicans who will ask for seats in the state convention, when provision has only been for twenty-five. The fifteen who will stand up will talk less assumingly after July 16.—Daily Reporter, Fond du Lac.

If Rock county feels badly over the course of Racine county in on the face of the returns electing a majority of delegates to the convention against Senator Whitehead, it can not be blamed. If it leads to opposition to Racine county in the next congressional convention it will not be surprising.—Racine Journal.

Marionette Eagle Quips: At least the half-breed press know how to get up a table of figures that can't be beat, on paper.

The LaFollette crowd are about ready to throw over Uncle Ike, but they need campaign funds. The half-breeds had all the laughs that were coming to them yesterday. Today is the other fellows.

Racine Journal: One of the results of this memorable contest for governor should be the enactment of a law making it a penal offense for any state official outside notary public, if such be called an official, to in any wise take part in political work beyond the mere act of voting.

Racine Journal: Judging from reports, the credential committee of the state central committee will have their hands full. The people expect justice done in this matter and no partnership.

Eau Claire Leader: It is gratifying to see that Senator Whitehead heads the list by a handsome majority. It shows that ten voters of Wisconsin are sound in their judgments and know who to select for their chief executive.

Eau Claire Leader: It is perfectly plain that if LaFollette wins, Spooner will be retired. Wisconsin cannot afford such a sacrifice. The nation cannot afford it.

Belvidere Northwestern: Out in Kansas, where there was a demand for guns to smash the rain clouds last summer, there is now a call for pumps.

FATHER OLSON SAYS FIRST MASS

MANY PRIESTS WERE PRESENT

With Beautiful Music and Sacred Ceremonies, a Young Man Begins Priestly Career.

Impressive and beautiful were the services held at St. Mary's church this morning at 10:30 o'clock to mark the entrance of Rev. Charles Olson, upon the solemn duties and obligations of priesthood. In the Roman Catholic church, into which priesthood Rev. Olson was ordained recently at Milwaukee as a graduate of St. Francis seminary.

This morning Rev. Olson celebrated his first solemn high mass and the service was characterized by a deep spirit of sanctity manifested not only in the participating priests but in the great audience which filled the handsome new church to the doors, many friends of the young priest being present to show their interest in him.

The Priest And His Bride

The service was preceded by a selection by the orchestra which was followed by the processional. The company of priests marched up the broad aisle of the church to the altar, preceded by Willie McLaughlin and Lawrence Thiele as altar boys, Frank Murphy of Racine, the cross-bearer and three little girls dressed in white. This was an especially pretty and significant feature. Little Genevieve McGinley serving as flower girl and Josephine McGinley as candle bearer while Stella Heller, of Jefferson, in trailing robes and bridal veil, represented the church, the bride to whom the life of the priest is wedded.

His First Mass

Then followed the celebration of the mass by Rev. Olson, celebrant, assisted by Rev. William Pelt, of Racine, deacon; Rev. Matthew McEvoy, Fond du Lac, sub-deacon; Rev. R. J. Roche, Milwaukee, assistant priest; W. Vollman, Wilmotte, Ill., master of ceremonies; Charles Bler, Janesville, thurifer; Ed. Aumann, Jefferson, and Goodheart O'Grady, Janesville, acolytes. With the exception of Rev. Roche, the assisting priests were all classmates of Rev. Olson and the other assistants are theological students at St. Francis.

An Able Sermon

Rev. R. H. Smythe, of Evanston, Ill., was the preacher of the day and gave an eloquent and inspiring sermon on "The Significance and Dignity of the Priesthood."

Inspiring Music

The music for the service was very beautiful, by the large chorus choir, under the direction of Prof. W. F. Thiele, rendering St. Patrick's mass by Wiegand exquisitely. Miss Tessie Gibbons, organist, assisted by John Smith, violin, Al. Kneff, cornet, and George Gray, clarinet, played the accompaniments faultlessly. The musical program included the solo, "Veni Creator," in which Miss Lillie Bourgmeier's rich soprano voice was heard at its best; a duet "O Salutaris," excellently rendered by Miss Bourgmeier and Andrew Gibbons and the offertory number "Boni Pastor," beautifully sung by Miss Bourgmeier, Miss Agnes Gooden and Peter Neuses.

An Elaborate Banquet

After the conclusion of the sacred service an elegant banquet was served in St. Mary's hall in honor of Rev. Olson by Rev. W. A. Goebel, pastor of St. Mary's church, Mrs. Erick Olson, the mother of the young priest and other relatives. The guests included the visiting priests, the members of the choir and personal friends, and covers were laid for 120 people. The tables were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and were waited on faultlessly by a committee of church ladies.

Visiting Priests

Among the visiting priests who were present at the service were Dean E. M. McGinley, Rev. W. A. Goebel and J. J. Collins, Janesville; Revs. R. J. Roche, Milwaukee; R. H. Smythe, Evanston, Ill.; William Pelt, Racine; Matthew McEvoy, Fond du Lac; Francis Ward, Beloit; James McGinley, Westport; J. E. Harlin, Edgerton; Eugene McCarthy, Milwaukee; M. Condon, Oregon; J. Bach, Jefferson; Ensign Hemming, Fond du Lac and Prof. Joseph Berg, St. Francis seminary.

Fellow Students

The visiting students from St. Francis seminary were Frank Murphy, Racine; George Fay, Milwaukee; Joseph Lauermann, Jefferson; J. Pierce, Whitewater and Stephen Dunn, Milwaukee.

To Go To Milwaukee

Rev. Charles Olson will enter upon active duties in the near future as assistant pastor for Rev. R. J. Roche, Milwaukee.

AFTER PRISON OFFICIALS

Clinton Man Just Released From State's Prison Will Bring Suit. Charles J. Folsom, of Clinton, who was sent to the state's prison for a term of seven years for arson in Clinton was released on June 27. He was in this city yesterday and claims he is about to bring suit against the state of Wisconsin and ex-Warden Claughey of the state's prison for destruction of United States mail, inhuman treatment and impairment of health.

He declared that while he was in the prison McClaughrey people intercepted his mail and prevented his letters reaching their destination that he might get a pardon. He claims that his term should have ended March 2, but that trumped up charges kept him in confinement until June 27. He says he will show up the many shameful practices indulged in by prison officials to keep the prisoners under subjection.

CEILING FALLS

Heavy Trunks Cause Plaster in Myers House Cigar Store to Drop

About a quarter to one today a ten foot section of the ceiling in Curtis and Klenow's cigar store gave way and made a wreck of one side of the store. The section that fell was directly over the cigar case on the south side and in a second the case and fixtures were a wreck. Fortunately there was no one under the plaster when it dropped, although Mr. Klenow, one of the proprietors and W. H. Greenman had just started out of the door when the crash came. If they had remained a few seconds longer they might have been subjects for the doctors. The proprietors of the store place the damage at about $100. Most of the cigars in the case that were in open boxes were broken and damaged.

It is thought that the ceiling became loosened by dropping the heavy sample trunks on the floor of the room in the Myers House above the store.

SCALP TORN OPEN BY FALLING PLANK

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Employee of Knickerbocker Company is Struck on the Head and Seriously Injured

Mr. Frielan, a carpenter in the employ of the Knickerbocker Co., at the stone crushing plant just east of the city, is congratulating himself that he is alive with a torn scalp, rather than a corpse with a crushed skull.

Hit By Plank

This morning while Frielan was working on the ground near the large building at the Knickerbocker Co. on the Wheeler farm, when a large two inch plank slipped from the hands of a workman at the top of the building, fifty feet above and in falling struck Frielan on the right side of the head just above the temple.

Frielan fell to the ground as though killed. The injured man was taken to his boarding house near the plant and Dr. E. F. Woods was hastily summoned.

Upon examination by the doctors it was found that the scalp was torn from the hair line of the forehead over the right temple to a point over the right ear. A large artery over the temple was cut, causing profuse bleeding and the skull showed an indentation, almost approaching a fracture. Several stitches were required to bring the scalp back to its proper place and the injured man is now resting easily.

Might Have Killed Him

Had the plank hit Frielan squarely on the head it would have caused instant death, but it striking near the side of the head glanced off, with the injuries stated above.

Frielan is a German about 25 years of age and resides at Watertown. He boards at the boarding house of the Knickerbocker Co., near the stone crusher.

WITNESSED A BIG SALE OF HORSES

David Brown Returns From an Interesting Visit in the Southern Dakota Country.

Dave Brown, who owns a feed store on Court Street has just returned from a three week's trip through Western and Northern Iowa and S. Dakota. His wife and children had preceded him on the trip to the west by several weeks and he joined them at the home of relatives.

Big Horse Sale

One of the interesting sights of Mr. Brown's trip was the big horse sale at the Sioux City stock yards. 10,000 horses were disposed of in a single day. He was also, for several days in the midst of the district that has recently been passed over by tornadoes. There was destruction everywhere along the way but there did not appear to be any suffering or destitution resulting.

Leveled Barns

The storm seemed to have struck one small area where it leveled barns and swept the ground clean and then jumped over a space of several miles to come down to the earth again to repeat the process.

Land in the west was booming in value. In one place it sold at $100 an acre. Just at the time that he passed through that district the extreme wet weather in a section always well soaked with water would permit of almost no farming operations, and farmers were waiting for a clear day to begin haying.

The work of moving the safes from the present offices to the new building will be done by E. T. Fish. The work will be done before the marble stairs are put in the new building.

Heavy Timbers Here: The heavy timbers for the floor of the new library building have arrived and work was resumed yesterday after a wait of two weeks. Three carloads of facing brick have arrived and are in the cars on North Main street siding.

Mrs. S. Hotelling entertained the South Main street-Whist club at her home yesterday afternoon and a very pleasant time was had by the members. Mrs. Louise Bowerman was the caterer and Mrs. A. E. Tanberg, assisted by Misses Olive and Helen Estes did the serving.

CHILD INJURED BY A BAD FALL

Slipped from Second Story Porch, and Was Picked Up from the Ground Unconscious.

Little Vera Hough, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hough, received a bad fall while playing on the back porch of their flat on Park Place.

The little one was playing about the porch in the rear of the second story of the building and in some manner slipped and fell from the porch to the ground. She landed on her head and shoulders and was unconscious when picked up. She was taken to her parents' rooms and Dr. Woods summoned. He found on examination that no bones were broken, but that she had received several severe bruises. She is now in a semi-unconscious condition and just how bad she is injured internally will not develop for a day or so.

OSTEOPATHIST SUCCESSFUL.

Delicate Operation Performed on President of New York Osteopaths' Society.

Operated on by fellow osteopaths George J. Helmer, pioneer of Osteopathy in the east, president of the New York state society of osteopaths, was resting easily in his home, No. 136 Madison avenue, today and is out of all danger. His trouble was one that could only be reached by osteopathy and no class of physicians would have discovered the trouble except an osteopathist. He had the misfortune to dislocate the fifth dorsal vertebra. The operation was one of the most delicate that has been performed, remembering that the osteopathist reduced the dislocation in a few minutes by manipulation.

Doctor Helmer was injured while treating one of his patients. Well known as an osteopathist, he has treated prominent men, among them, Senator Platt and Mark Twain. He had a patient some weeks ago upon whom he was compelled to expend unusual muscular force. In the operation he displaced the above named vertebra, with the result that it was necessary to carry him to bed. He enlisted the services of other osteopathists, sending to Buffalo for Dr. W. W. Steele and to Brooklyn for Dr. Charles T. Bandel. Knowing that the doctor's life was in grave danger, they decided to reduce the dislocated vertebra at once. Dr. Steele was the operator. It was a trying task as they had to be very careful not to injure the spinal cord. They were successful in reducing the vertebra which saved the life of Dr. Helmer.

Osteopathy a few years ago was not very well known in the north and east. Today it is known all over the civilized world by the cures it has made and is making all over the country.

While talking with one of New York city's doctors, I said "Doctor, could you have replaced the dislocation of Dr. Helmer's?" "No, I could not have found it in the first place and if I had I would have been helpless." Osteopathy is the science of today and will do more for all known diseases and cases except surgical cases than will any other science.—New York Sun.

C. W. Bliss the osteopath has an office in the Hayes' Block.

Sweet Brier a Nuisance.

Some years ago sweet brier was introduced into Tasmania and became apparently too abundant. Goats were put upon the land with the idea that they would eat down the briars and ultimately eradicate them. But the briars came out best and eradicated the goats. The hairy linings of the fruit of the sweet brier killed the animals, as they did also a number of cattle.

Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Tetters and Acne

Belong to that class of inflammatory and disfiguring skin eruptions that cause more genuine bodily discomfort and worry than all other known diseases. The impurities or sediments which collect in the system because of poor digestion, inactive Kidneys and other organs of elimination are taken up by the blood, saturating the system with acid poisons, and fluids that ooze out through the glands and pores of the skin, producing an insupportable itching and burning, and "I can cheerfully endorse your S. TROLLEY CAR FALLS INTO THE FOX RIVER

Six Persons Seriously Injured in the Panic Resulting from a Broken Bridge Span.

Elgin, Ill., July 2.—An Interurban trolley car, with thirty-five passengers on board, crashed through the middle span of a bridge across the Fox river at St. Charles, seriously injuring six persons and causing a panic among those only slightly hurt.

The car, running on the Elgin, Aurora and Southern Traction Company's line, left Aurora at 9:30 a. m. on its way to Elgin and picked up many passengers. The car mounted the west approach of the bridge at a slow pace. When just about the middle of the center span the timbers cracked as the first portion of the car passed over them and broke as the hind wheels reached the center.

The car slowly sank a few feet and then went down with a crash, finally standing on end in the river with three feet of water and the passengers thrown into a confused heap in the water. For a few moments panic reigned and the passengers were forced to climb through the broken windows in order to escape.

The seriously injured: Mrs. Charles J. Smith, Mrs. W. R. Heck, Mrs. Granger, Mrs. Swaby, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Jacobson.

MANN FINDS ERROR.

Through Some Means a Salary Item Was Raised $1,000.

Washington, July 2.—During the rush of business incident to the closing hours of the session Representative Mann of Chicago detected a bold attempt at fraud or one of the most remarkable errors in the memory of the oldest members. The speaker recognized Representative Adams of Philadelphia to ask the consideration of an unimportant bill to increase the salary of appraisers of customs at Philadelphia and Boston.

While the clerk was reading the bill to the House Mr. Mann sat in his desk following him with a copy of the bill which he had secured. He discovered that the bill which the clerk read and the one he held were not alike and sought an explanation. He found that there were two prints of the bill, exact duplicates in every respect except in the important item of salary. The bill which had been passed by the Senate and reported favorably to the House proposed to increase the salary from $3,000, the amount the appraisers now receive, to $4,000. The bill which had been substituted for it and had been placed before the House, proposed to increase the salary from $4,000 to $5,000.

TOOK NO BRIBES.

Committee Exonerates Members in Danish West Indies Charges.

Washington, July 2.—Chairman Dalzell of the special committee of the House which investigated the charges in connection with the purchase of the Danish West India Islands submitted the report of that committee. After detailing the charges of bribery and showing that Captain Christmas had repudiated the alleged report on which the charges were based, the committee sums up the results of the investigation as follows: "That there is not the slightest semblance of evidence that any member of Congress, either directly or indirectly, was offered or received any bribe, or was paid any valuable consideration of any kind or character to vote for or assist in procuring the proposal, adoption or ratification of a treaty of sale of the Danish West India Islands to the United States."

CIRCULATION STATEMENT.

National Bank Notes Show an Increase of Nearly $3,000,000.

Washington, July 2.—The monthly circulation statement issued by the comptroller of the currency shows that at the close of business June 30, 1902, the total circulation of national bank notes was $356,672,091, an increase for the year of $2,929,904, and a decrease for the month of $75,093. The circulation based on United States bonds was $314,238,811, a decrease for the year of $9,651,873, and an increase for the month of $628,974. The circulation secured by lawful money was $42,433,280, an increase for the year of $12,581,777 and a decrease for the month of $704,067. The amount of United States registered bonds on deposit to secure circulating notes was $317,163,530, and to secure public deposits $124,718,650.

To Build One War Vessel.

Washington, July 2.—The conferees of the two houses of Congress on the naval appropriation bill reached an agreement on the one point left in dispute after former conferences. This related to the contention as to whether any of the proposed new war vessels should be built in government navy yards. The compromise agreement authorizes the construction of one battle ship in a government yard and also others in case of emergency. There is an appropriation of $175,000 for the equipment of each navy yard to be used for constructing any of the ships.

Consider Canal Measures.

Washington, July 2.—The cabinet was engaged at the suggestion of Secretary Hay in the preparation of measures to carry out the terms of the isthmian canal law. The government must determine the sufficiency of the title that can be conveyed to the United States by the Panamanian Canal company; a treaty must be negotiated with Colombia conferring the necessary rights, and a technical commission must be appointed to carry on the actual work of construction.

Cuban Vouchers.

Washington, July 2.—Acting Secretary of War Sanger sent to the house an answer to the resolution asking information as to what amounts have been paid out of the Cuban treasury or funds of the Cuban people to F. B. Thurber or others for advocating reciprocity with the United States. The answer consists of certified copies of vouchers covering the payments referred to in the resolution, amounting to $15,625.

Revenues Reduced.

Washington, July 2.—The government revenues will be reduced $73,000,000 a year by the repeal of the war revenue tax. Notwithstanding this reduction and the cut of $30,000,000 annually made a year ago, when a part of the taxes were repealed, the revenues of the government will exceed annually by $25,000,000 those collected prior to the war with Spain.

Justice Ramos Resigns.

Washington, June 2.—Chief Justice Ramos of the district court of San Juan, who is charged by officers of the American Federation of Labor with having conspired to defeat the organization of labor in Porto Rico, has tendered his resignation to the governor of the island, and will give up his place on the bench July 18.

President Lays Corner Stone.

Washington, July 2.—Notwithstanding pressing business incident to the closing of congress President Roosevelt found time to lay the corner stone of the new Grace Reformed church. The president is a member of the congregation that is erecting the new edifice.

GET UP!

That's the morning call of Chanticleer. It's a welcome cry to a well man. But to a man whose sleep seems to have been only an unrefreshing stupor; who wakes with burning eyes, throbbing head, and a bad taste in the mouth, it means only a new day's misery.

In such a physical condition health is most surely and swiftly restored by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and it cures through the stomach diseases of liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands, and every organ is benefited by the resulting increase of rich, pure blood.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have been of great benefit to me," writes (Prof.) Pleasant A. Oliver, of Viola, Fulton Co., Ark. "Before I used the above mentioned remedies my sleep was not sound, digestion bad, a continual feeling of misery, I now feel like a new man. Any one in need of medical treatment for nasal catarrh could do no better than to take treatment of Dr. R. V. Pierce. I know his medicines are all right in this class of diseases."

Tin Cans in the Southwest.
 The Southwestern gets his living from tin cans. There surely never was such a region for canned vegetables, canned meat, canned fruit, canned soup, canned milk, canned cheese. Empty tin cans form a charmed circle about every southwestern town and camp. Even where he can profitably and easily produce his own food, the southwestern seems to prefer to raise some exclusive crop, sell his product, and buy canned goods. It is amusing enough to discover that the cattle rancher, though a thousand cows come up to water at his tanks every day, or two will yet serve condensed milk from cans that come from New Jersey, that his beef bears the mark of Kansas City, that even his poultry and eggs are imported at enormous prices from Kansas. His butter also comes canned. If it were not for the patient Chinese gardener, even the best irrigated valleys would be without fresh vegetables.—The Century.

Murder Charge Falls.

Green Bay, Wis., July 2.—Court Commissioner Mattie dismissed the case against Mrs. Sophia Smith, the Onondia Indian woman charged with the murder of Thomas Schuyler. The evidence showed that Schuyler had come to the Smith home brandishing two revolvers and threatening to kill the woman's husband.
